Testing Companies and DNA Analyzing Websites

Ancestry (www.ancestry.com)

Tests only autosomal DNA, but has the advantage of extensive family trees attached to results, but only viewable to subscribers of the home version of Ancestry who submit a test.

Family Tree DNA (www.familytreedna.com)

Tests autosomal, Y, and mitochondrial DNA. Results are viewable to subscribers.

23andme (www.23andme.com)

Tests only autosomal DNA but also provides some medical information. Results are viewable to subscribers.

GEDMatch (www.gedmatch.com)

A free website that allows for the uploading of autosomal test results from other companies and provides extensive means of comparing the results.
